

Contact Your Local Legislators

The Healthy Jacksonville Childhood Obesity Prevention Coalition (HJCOPC) consistently advocates at all levels of government for improved policies, programs and laws relating to nutrition, physical activity and overall health.

But we need your voice, too. One phone call or email can make a lasting, positive impact upon the health of Duval County residents.

Increases in weight and declining physical fitness are major threats to the health of children in Duval County and across the country. Overweight or obese children are more likely to be overweight or obese as adults, and are at greater risk for chronic diseases now and into adulthood, including cardiovascular disease, hypertension, diabetes and some cancers.

Here you will find a contact list of local, state and national legislators. Help us help all children throughout Duval County by contacting your representatives and urging them to support policies, programs and laws that promote healthy eating, active living and youth empowerment.
