SAVE THE DATE: JUNE 28 - Duval County Food Policy Council to Reconvene

Earlier this spring, the Duval County Food Policy Council convened the inaugural Duval County Food Summit, a community-driven conversation aimed at improving the quality of life for residents by providing access to fresh and healthy food. Save the date for Thursday, June 28 from 5:15 - 6:30 p.m., when the Council will reconvene to discuss findings from the Summit and work to develop the Council's agenda moving forward. E-mail Healthy Jacksonville to RSVP and lend your voice to the conversation.

Free Web-Based Training Opportunity: Roots of Health Inequity

The National Association of County and City Health Officials launched Roots of Health Inequity, the first comprehensive web-based curriculum about the root causes of health inequity. The course features a five-part series with interactive presentations, videos and group-directed conversations to identify different strategies for taking action on health inequities. Some continuing education credits are available through this course. Visit Roots of Health Inequity to learn more about the program.

Funding Alert: Build A Skate Park for Kids

The Tony Hawk Foundation is dedicated to funding the construction of new, quality skateboard parks located in low-income communities throughout the United States. The Foundation primarily considers projects that can demonstrate a strong grassroots commitment, particularly in the form of planning and fundraising by local skateboarders and other community groups. Requests are reviewed two times per year; the upcoming application deadline is July 2. Visit the Foundation's website to review the grant criteria and submit an online application.
